VICTOR PUBLIC LIBRARY NEWS:

Saturday, December 8 from 9:00-12:00 and during open business hours. Come check out the decorations and enjoy some activities and refreshments during Victor's Old Fashioned Christmas. All ages are welcome.

Thursday, December 20 from 3:45-11:00 Holiday Movie Marathon. Kick off vacation with your friends by joining us for an afternoon and evening of holiday classics. We'll be watching the Grinch (original animated and the Jim Carrey version), Polar Express, Jingle All the Way, and the Nightmare Before Christmas. Check out the library's Facebook page for general show times. All ages are welcome but parents of younger youth can pick up at your discretion. Youth are encouraged to bring blankets, pillows, etc. for comfortable viewing. We'll have popcorn, bottled water, a lite meal and other refreshments. If you need to get a hold of me that night, my cell is 319-310-8312 (Crystal).

Monday, December 24 – The Library will be closed for Christmas.

Monday, December 31 from 10:00-12:00 Noon Year's Eve Party! Wear your pj's to this event that will include crafts, books, food, and a countdown at noon! Activities will be geared towards elementary aged youth.

Please also note that the mobile food pantries are changing their process. Please contact the library to learn more. These are great ways to help stretch your food budget for families that qualify. The Victor Public Library has great programs for adults too!
